ARTICLE I

Section 1. The corporation has been formed for the purpose of serving as the Council of Co-Owners for Scottsdale Shadows VI (the Regime), a horizontal property regime existing by virtue of the Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime and Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Scottsdale Shadows VI, recorded with the County Recorder of Maricopa County, Arizona at Recorder's No. 84-040386, (such document as hereafter amended and in effect from time to time being hereafter called the "Declaration").

Section 2. Definitions. Terms used herein which are defined in the Declaration shall have the same meaning as in the Declaration. Except as otherwise defined in the Declaration, terms used herein which are defined in A.R.S. 10-3140 shall have the definitions set forth in said statute.

Section 3. Application of By-Laws. All present and future Owners, tenants, future tenants or other employees or any other person who might use the facilities of the Regime in any manner are subject to the provisions of these By-Laws. The ownership or rental of any of the Units in the Regime or the mere action of occupancy of any said Units will signify that these By-Laws are accepted, ratified and will be complied with by the occupant or Owner.

Section 4. Priority of Declaration. The provisions of the Declaration shall have priority over these By-Laws, and any provision hereof which is contrary to or inconsistent with the Declaration (as amended from time to time) shall be void to the extent of such inconsistency.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. Voting. Notwithstanding the number of co-owners who may jointly or otherwise own a Unit, voting on all matters shall be limited to one (1) of the co-owners. Where two (2) or more Persons own an interest in the Unit, they shall designate to the Board of Directors, in writing, one of their number who shall have the power to vote. In the absence of such designation and until such designation is made, the Board shall make such designation.

Section 2. Relative Voting Rights. In all matters requiring a vote of the Owners, voting shall be on a percentage basis and the percentage of the vote to which each Owner is entitled is the same as the percentage interest in the Common Elements which is appurtenant to such Unit, as provided in the Declaration.

Section 3. Majority of Co-Owners. As used in these By-Laws, the term "Majority of Co-Owners" shall mean those Owners holding more than forty percent (40%) of the votes in accordance with the percentages assigned to each Unit, as provided in Section 2 of this Article.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, or as may be required by law, the presence in person, by absentee or mail ballot of the Majority of Co-Owners shall constitute a quorum, and a majority of those present either in person or by ballot at an annual or duly noticed special meeting shall be necessary to act upon any matter before such meeting.

Section 5. Ballots. Votes may be cast in person, by absentee or mail ballot. All ballots must be received by the Secretary or other authorized representative of the Association before the appointed time of such meeting. Any ballot or absentee ballot shall automatically be revoked upon conveyance of a Unit to a new Owner.

Section 6. Election of Directors. Election of directors shall be by written ballot. At such election, the Members may cast as many votes in the aggregate as each is entitled to vote under the Declaration and the Articles of Incorporation, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Each such person may cast the whole number of votes to which he is entitled for one candidate or distribute such votes in any manner he chooses among two or more candidates. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. Council Responsibilities. The corporation will constitute the Council of Co-Owners (herein referred to as the "Council") of the Regime acting through its Board of Directors and its Members. The Board of Directors shall have the responsibility of administering the Regime and exercising all powers and duties provided for by law or in the Declarations, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, except such matters as are reserved to the members by law or by such Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws.

Section 2. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the Members shall be at the Scottsdale Shadows development or at such other convenient place as may be designated by the Board of Director.

The Members may also transact such other business as may properly come before them at such annual meetings.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members may be called by the President, by resolution of the Board of Directors or by a petition signed by a majority of Co-Owners and presented to the Secretary or in such other manner as required by law. The notice of any special meeting shall state the day and hour and place of such meeting and the purpose or purposes thereof. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice thereof.

Section 5. Notice of Meeting. It shall be the duty of the Secretary at the direction of the person or persons calling a meeting to mail or deliver a notice of each annual or special meeting to each Member of record, stating the purpose or purposes thereof, the day and hour and the place where it is to be held, at least ten (10) but not more than fifty (50) days prior to such meeting. If the Secretary fails or refuses to act promptly, the person or persons calling the meeting may do so. The mailing of a notice in the manner provided in this Section shall be considered notice served.

Section 6. Adjourned Meetings. If any meeting of Members cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the Members who are present, either in person or by ballot, may adjourn the meeting from time to time, to a time not more than thirty (30) days from and after the time the original meeting was called, and no new notice shall be required for such adjourned session.

The affairs of the corporation shall be governed by a Board of Directors composed of three (3) to seven (7) persons, all of whom must be Co-Owners in Scottsdale Shadows VI (Regime VI) who have resided in Regime VI at least six (6) months prior to becoming a board member. They must be in residence in Scottsdale Shadows VI at least nine (9) months of the year. Being in residence means that the person's primary residence is in Regime VI. Board members who miss three (3) consecutive scheduled meetings are automatically removed from the Board.

Section 2. Powers and Duties. The Board of Directors shall have all powers necessary or convenient and shall be responsible for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and may do all such acts and things as are not by law, by the Declaration or by the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws directed to be exercised solely by the Owners or Members.

Section 3. Other Duties. Without limiting the generality of Section 2 of this Article, the Board of Directors shall be responsible for the following:

- A. Care, upkeep and surveillance of the Regime and the Common Elements and facilities.
- B. Preparation of an annual budget and allocation of the budget to the various Units in accordance with the various percentage interest in the Common Elements appurtenant hereto.

- C. Collection of monthly assessments from the Owners and the filing of liens and foreclosure thereof where necessary.
- D. Employment and dismissal of the personnel necessary for the maintenance and the operation of the Regime and the Common Elements and facilities.
- E. Employment of a management agent at a compensation established by the Board of Directors to perform such duties and services as the Board shall authorize. The duties conferred upon the management agent by the Board of Directors may at any time be revoked, modified or amplified by a majority of the Board of Directors at a duly constituted meeting.
- F. To make repairs within the Units where such repairs are required for the welfare or safety of the Regime or its residents.
- G. To acquire an interest in Recreational Center Inc. and to obligate this Regime to pay its share of assessments levied by said Recreational Center Inc. for the purchase, construction, development, operation, maintenance and management of recreational facilities for the Owners in the Regime and in other Regimes; and to designate a representative of the Regime to attend and vote at all meetings of the Board of Directors or members of Recreational Center Inc.
- H. To obtain and keep in full force and effect fire and hazard insurance on the building and all common elements in the Regime, and public liability and other insurance as required by the Declaration or as permitted and deemed necessary and advisable by the Board.

- J. To adopt and amend rules and regulations and enforce the same covering the operation and use of all of the property and recreational areas in the Regime.
- K. To suspend, prohibit and restrain any Owner who is delinquent in the payment of any assessments or who violates any of the rules, regulations, By-Laws or Declarations from using all or any part of the recreational facilities furnished and provided by Recreational Center Inc.
- L. To open bank accounts on behalf of the Regime and to designate the signatories required therefore.
- M. To invest any excess funds held or controlled by the corporation.

The foregoing enumeration of specific responsibilities shall not be deemed to limit any other power or duty of the Board of Directors arising by law or under the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws.

Section 4. Election and Term of Office. Members of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of three (3) years. The term of the elected directors shall be staggered and the number of directors elected will be limited to the term and number of vacancies available. For those elected, the terms of office shall be a three (3) year term for the director receiving the highest number of votes, a two (2) year term for the director(s) receiving the next highest number of votes, if more than three (3) directors are elected, and a one (1) year term for the director(s) receiving the lowest number of votes, if more than four (4) directors are elected. Only Co-Owners may serve on the Regime VI Board of Directors and only one Co-Owner may serve at a time from any Unit.

The directors shall hold office until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified or, with respect to any individual director, until the earliest to occur of his/her death, resignation or removal.

Section 5. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and any director so chosen shall serve as a director until the next election of directors.

Section 6. Resignation And Removal of Directors. A Director may resign at any time upon delivery of written notice to the President or Secretary of the corporation. Such resignation shall be in effect upon receipt or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise provided therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. At any regular or special meeting duly called, any one or more of the directors may be removed with or without cause by the vote of a sufficient number of Members that, if the votes cast against such removal would not be sufficient to elect the director or directors so removed if cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors; provided, however that the entire Board of Directors may be so removed by the affirmative vote of a Majority of Co-Owner. Successors may then and there be elected by the Members to fill the vacancy or vacancies thus created.

Section 7. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to directors or officers for their services as directors or officers. No remuneration shall be paid to a director for services performed by him for the corporation in any capacity, unless a resolution authorizing such remuneration shall have been unanimously adopted by the Board of Directors before the services are undertaken. Neither a director or officer may be an employee of the corporation. Directors and officers, however, may be reimbursed for any actual expenses incurred in the connection with their duties as such officers or directors.

Section 8. Organization Meeting. The first meeting of a newly elected Board of Directors shall be called and held within ten (10) days after the election at such place as a majority of such directors shall approve either at or after such meeting.

Section 9. Regular Meeting. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined, by a majority of the directors, but at least four (4) such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, personally, by mail, telephone or e-mail, at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for such meeting and said notice shall be posted in a conspicuous location.

Section 10. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or Secretary or by a majority of the directors on three (3) days notice to each director, given personally, by mail, telephone or e-mail, which notice shall state the time, place (as hereinabove provided) and purposes of the meeting.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board of Directors, any director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting unless the director attends for the sole and express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 12. Board of Directors Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the number of directors fixed in these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Directors. If there shall be at any meeting of the Board of Directors less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at a meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 13. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors shall require that all officers handling or responsible for funds of the Regime shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premium on such bonds shall be paid by the corporation.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. Designation. The principal officers of the corporation shall be a President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors, and, at the discretion of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents and such other officers as the Board may from time to time designate. A person may hold more than one office, except that the offices of President and Vice President, President and Secretary and President and Treasurer shall not be held by the same person simultaneously

Section 2. Election of Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of each new Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board. If the Board of Directors shall fail to act at any such meeting, each current officer shall continue to hold office until his successor is elected and shall qualify or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 3. Resignation and Removal of Officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause. Any officer may resign at any time by delivering written notice of such resignation to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise provided therein acceptance of such resignation may not be necessary to make it effective. A vacancy in any office may be filled at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting of the Board of Directors called for such purpose.

Section 4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. He shall preside at all meetings of the Members and of the Board of Directors. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of the President of a corporation, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint committees from among the Members from time to time as he may, at his discretion, decide it is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

Section 5. Vice President. The Vice President shall take the place of the President and perform his duties whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If neither the President nor the Vice President shall be able to act, the Board of Directors shall appoint some other member of the Board to so do on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon him by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Secretary. The Secretary shall have the responsibility for keeping minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the Members, such correspondence as shall be necessary, the official Minute Book of the corporation, and such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed on him by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the responsibility for funds and securities of the corporation and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements of the corporation and such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. Assessments and Late Fees. All Owners shall be obligated to pay monthly assessments for Common Elements expenses under and in accordance with the Declaration. Without limiting the foregoing, the assessments shall include the cost of maintenance and repair of the Common Elements, utilities, taxes and assessments, if any, on Common Elements and all other items necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements. There shall also be included in the assessments reserve funding for the repair, replacement and improvements of Regime assets, as well as, the cost to the Regime by reason of its obligation to pay assessments to Recreational Center Inc. for the purchase, construction, development, operation and management of facilities available to the Owners. Any assessments levied or collected which are in excess of the amount required for proper purposes shall be refunded to Owners who paid such assessments. Any assessment or an installment of any assessment, which is not paid within fifteen (15) days after the assessment first became due shall be deemed delinquent and shall bear a late fee of ten (10%) percent of the delinquent assessment. In addition to the ten (10) percent late fee (after 15 days), an additional one and one half (1 ½%) percent per month finance charge shall be assessed on all accounts in arrears more than sixty (60) days. The Unit Owner shall also be liable for any legal fees associated with the collection efforts required by the Regime.

Section 2. Impounds. Each Owner shall pay to the Regime at the time such Owner purchases a Unit a sum equal to six (6) times the then established and existing monthly Common Element assessment for such Unit. Said sum may be used by the Regime as working capital and shall be refunded to the Owner upon sale or transfer of his Unit less any amounts then due from said Owner to the Regime.

Section 3. Budgets. The Board of Directors shall prepare an annual budget for the Regime, determine the amount of the common charges payable by the Owners to meet the common expenses of the Regime and allocate and assess such charges among the Owners according to the interests in the Common Elements appurtenant to their respective Unit. The Board of Directors shall advise all Owners promptly in writing of the amount of such charges payable by each of them respectively and shall furnish copies of the budget on which such common charges are based to all Owners and to their mortgagers, if requested in writing.

Section 4. Maintenance and Repair.

- A. Each Owner shall perform promptly all maintenance and repair and upkeep work within his own Unit, which if omitted, would affect the Regime in its entirety or in a part belonging to other Owners. In the event any Owner fails to maintain, keep or repair his own Unit and in the event the Board of Directors shall determine that it is necessary to perform such repairs, the Board of Directors may enter such Owner's Unit and make such repairs as are necessary, provided, however, that such Owner shall first have been given thirty (30) days notice of the intention of the Board of Directors to make such repairs. In the event that the Owner fails to make such repairs within said thirty (30) day period, the Board of Directors through its agent may make repairs and levy an assessment for the costs thereof against the Owner and shall have a lien for all costs incurred against the Owner's Unit as provided in the Declaration.
- B. All repairs of internal installation within any Unit, such as water, light, gas, power, sewage, telephone, air conditioning, door, windows, lamps and other accessories belonging to and located within the Unit shall be the Owner's expense. Any such repairs required which are outside of the Unit to be served, thereby, shall be at the expense of the Regime as Common Element maintenance costs.
- C. An Owner shall reimburse the Regime for any expenditures incurred in repairing or replacing any Common element damage through his own fault.
- D. An Owner shall not make structural modifications or alterations in his Unit without previously securing written approval from the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Use of General Common Elements and Facilities. An Owner shall not place or cause to be placed in any Common Element any furniture, packages or objects of any kind. Such areas shall be used for no purpose other than for the normal transit and, in the case of recreational facilities, for the normal and intended use of such recreational facilities.

Section 6. Right of Entry. The management agent or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors shall have the right of entry into any Unit for the purposes of inspection and making necessary repairs, alterations, installations and maintenance to the Common Elements, including mechanical or electrical services, provided that request for such entry is made in advance and such entry is at a time reasonably convenient to the Owner. In case of emergency, the right of entry shall be immediate.

ARTICLE VII

The corporation may appoint committees of its Members and/or directors as deemed appropriate in carrying out its purpose.

ARTICLE VIII

The Board of Directors may adopt a seal for the corporation. The use of the seal shall not, however, be necessary to the validity of any corporate act or signature.

ARTICLE IX

These By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of the Members at any annual or special meeting where notice of the proposed amendment is included in the call or notice of meeting, provided that these By-Laws shall not be amended to contain any terms or provision which would be contrary to the Declaration or the Articles of Incorporation as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE X

Any Owner who mortgages his Unit shall notify the corporation through the Secretary of the Board of Directors of the name and address of his Mortgager and the Board shall maintain a record of such information in a book entitled "Book of Mortgages".

ARTICLE XI

The Board of Directors may promulgate and adopt rules and regulations for the management of the Regime, and said rules and regulations shall apply to and govern the occupation of the various Units and of the Common Elements by the Owners and lessees, tenants and guests and all other persons.

ARTICLE XII

Section 1. Maintenance of Financial and All Other Records. The Board of Directors shall cause to be maintained the complete books of accounting concerning all funds, assets and liabilities of the corporation. The corporation shall also keep complete minutes of the meetings of its Members, Board of Directors and any committees thereof and a list of the names and addresses of all Members entitled to vote and all ballots of which the corporation has received proper notice. All such relevant books of account and other records shall be open to inspection upon the written demand, delivered to the President or Secretary, stating the purpose of such examination, by any Owner for any proper purpose reasonably related to his interest as such Owner or Mortgager. Such financial records shall be kept at the horizontal property regime in a location or locations known to the Members. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make copies of or extracts from such books and records.

Section 2. Annual Report to Owners. Annually, at least ten (10) days prior to the annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall cause to be prepared and sent to every Owner an annual report of the affairs of the corporation. Said report shall contain a complete accounting of receipts and disbursements of all funds of the corporation during the preceding fiscal year and a balance sheet setting forth all assets and liabilities of the corporation as of the end of the preceding fiscal year. Upon written demand of Owners holding forty percent (40%) or more of the total votes, given at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of the annual meeting, an independent audit of the books and records of the corporation shall be performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards by a duly licensed certified public accountant at the corporation's expense. A copy of the report of such audit shall then be rendered to each Owner in lieu of the annual report hereinabove required.

ARTICLE XIII

The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of July and end on the 30th day of June of every year, except that the first fiscal year shall begin on the date of incorporation.

Section 5. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum or by a sole remaining director, and any director so chosen shall serve as a director until the next election of directors when and qualified.

Section 6. Resignation and Removal of Directors. A director may resign at any time upon delivery of written notice to the President or Secretary of the corporation. Such resignation shall be in effect upon receipt or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise provided therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. At any regular or special meeting duly called, any one or more of the directors may be removed with or without cause by the vote of a sufficient number of Members that the votes cast against such removal would not be sufficient to elect the director or directors so removed if cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors; provided, however, that the entire Board of Directors may be so removed by affirmative vote of a Majority of Co-Owners. Successors may then and there be elected by the Members to fill the vacancy or vacancies thus created.

Section 4. Election and Terms of Office: In lieu of electing all of the directors annually for a one year term, the directors are hereby divided into three classes of members. At each annual meeting after such classification, commencing with the annual meeting in 1996, the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the third succeeding annual meeting.

At the annual meeting of the association in January of 1996, following the classification at the 1995 annual meeting, the two directors receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office for three years; the two directors receiving the next highest number of votes shall hold office for two years; and the director receiving the lowest number of votes shall hold office for one year.

The directors shall hold office until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified or, with respect to any individual director, until the earliest to occur of his/her death, resignation or removal.

Section 7. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to directors or officers for their services as directors or officers. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or Secretary or by a majority of the directors on three (3) days' notice to each director, given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place (as hereinabove provided) and purposes of the meeting.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice. Before, at or after any meeting of the Board of Directors, any director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting unless the director attends for the sole and express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 12. Board of Directors' Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the number of directors fixed in these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Directors. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there shall be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at a meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 13. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors shall require that all officers and employees handling or responsible for funds of the Regime shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the corporation.

Section 3. Resignation and Removal of Officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause. Any officer may resign at any time by delivering written notice of such resignation to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise provided therein, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. A vacancy in any office may be filled at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or at any special meeting of the Board called for such purpose.

Section 4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. He shall preside at all meetings of the Members and of the Board of Directors. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of the President of a corporation, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint committees from among the Members from time to time as he may in his discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

Section 5. Vice-Presidents. Vice-Presidents shall take the place of the President and perform his duties whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. There shall also be included in the assessments reserves for replacements and impounds as required and the cost to the Regime by reasons of its obligations to pay assessments to Recreational Center, Inc. for the purchase, construction, development, operation and management of recreational facilities available to the Owners. Any assessments levied or collected which are in excess of the amount required for proper purposes shall be refunded to Owners who paid such assessments.

The Board of Directors shall advise all Owners promptly in writing of the amount of such charges payable by each of them respectively and shall furnish copies of the budget on which such common charges are based to all Owners and to their mortgagees if requested in writing. The Board of Directors may levy a late penalty charge on any Owner who fails to pay all or any part of his assessment on or before the due date as set by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Each Owner shall perform promptly all maintenance and repair and upkeep work within his own Unit, which, if omitted, would affect the Regime in its entirety or in a part belonging to other Owners. In the event any Owner fails to maintain, keep or repair his own Unit and in the event the Board of Directors shall determine that it is necessary to perform such repairs, the Board of Directors may enter such Owner's Unit and make such repairs as are necessary, provided, however, that such Owner shall first have been given thirty (30) days' notice of the intention of the Board of Directors to make such repairs. Section 6. Right of Entry. The management agent or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors shall have the right to enter into any Unit for purposes of inspection and making necessary repairs, alterations, installations and maintenance to the Common Elements, including mechanical or electrical services, provided that a request for such entry is made in advance and such entry is at a time reasonably convenient to the Owner. The Board of Directors shall cause to be maintained complete books of account concerning all funds, assets and liabilities of the corporation. The corporation shall also keep complete minutes of the meetings of its Members, Board of Directors and any committees thereof and a list of the names and addresses of all Members entitled to vote and all irrevocable proxies of which the corporation has received proper notice. All such relevant books of account and other records shall be open to inspection upon the written demand, delivered to the President or Secretary, stating the purpose of such examination, by any Owner or Mortgagee recorded in the Book of Mortgages for any proper purpose reasonably related to his interest as such Owner or Mortgagee. Such books and records shall be kept at the horizontal property regime or at such other convenient location as the Board of Directors shall determine; provided, that the location or locations chosen by the Board of Directors under this Section shall be known to the members. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make copies of or extracts from or to perform audits of such books and records.
